7 years' jail for fake cards

A MALAYSIAN fake credit card syndicate member was jailed for seven years on Wednesday for possessing forged cards which he had planned to use in Singapore.

Gan Ee Guan, 44, and his accomplice, Yeo Hui Seng, 49, were arrested by the immigration authorities on Oct 17 last year.

A total of 35 fake credit cards bearing two different names had been found packed in two empty cigarette boxes.

Gan pleaded guilty to 18 charges and had another 17 taken into consideration.

Yeo was jailed for five years early last month for similar offences.
